City Council Members,

On January 11, 2017, I will be asking for you to appoint me as the interim Council Member. I am a passionate leader who cares deeply for our community. I am committed to community engagement, transparency in governance, fiduciary oversight, and responsible resource management for sustainable growth and services. My vision for Morgan Hill is to manage our growth, in accordance with regional needs, while continuing to maintain our vibrant, charming and safe community.

I know my passion, expertise, and professionalism will complement the existing City Council and I would be honored to take a seat next to you. I am confident we will work together in the spirit of respect and collaboration— making ethical stewardship a priority for the community we call, "home".

Thank you,

Danielle Davenport
