

Current Exhibits

Community and Cultural Center

Artist Pamala Meador is showcased at the Community and Cultural Center from November through December. Pamela is defined by art and culture and produces "fine art" for its aesthetic value and beauty. She embraces life and always thinking, creating, looking at things differently and travels the road not taken. Pamela finds inspiration in nature and is influenced by the light, color, and shadow in her surroundings. Each image has its own story. Pamela's degree emphasized sculpture.

Glass Case

A husband and wife team from Morgan Hill - Robert and Cherie Knopf started working with glass in 2008. They began with blowing glass and creating fused glass pieces. They enjoy creating colorful, unique pieces they hope will be enjoyed. They specialize in functional art pieces, jewelry, and home decorations.

We invite our residents to check out these exhibits.