Library News

Angela Macchia was honored for her work as a library volunteer at the annual Morgan Hill Community Foundation Philanthropy Event. Angela has been a dedicated volunteer for over 6 years, volunteering on a weekly basis to pull items from the shelves to fill requests for library users across the Santa Clara County system.

The Commissioners' Corner display featuring books, movies, audiobooks and music recommendations from the library commissioners will continue to be up through December.

November Highlights

Python Programming & Minecraft

Volunteers from Aquacoders presented two programs teaching 3rd-8th graders how to use Python programming to interact with Minecraft. The classes were so well received the library will be offering monthly programs starting next year.

Women and Culinary Arts with Cynthia Sandberg from Love Apple Farm

The November AAUW program, part of their monthly speaker series, featured Cynthia Sandberg from Love Apple Farm and brought in over 50 attendees.
